DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 6, 8, 10, 11, 17, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Woodman (4,616,857).

Woodman discloses a sealing ring comprising a sealing body 81 disposed in an annular groove 83 in an annular body 61 (and another on opposite end near 67). The sealing body has a bead 89 projecting axially past the body 61. An annular inner free space (adjacent portion 91) is radially within the sealing bead. An annular outer free space 93 is radially outside the bead. As seen best in Figure 3, the inner space has a larger cross-section and depth than the outer space. As seen best in Figure 2, the groove is at least equal to the volume of the sealing body and the free spaces accept material when the sealing body is deformed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3, 9, and 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Woodman.

Regarding claims 3 and 9, Woodman does not disclose the groove has a width greater at the opening than at the floor. Woodman does not disclose the inner space is wider at the opening than the outer space. These are considered design choices. See In re Dailey, 149 USPQ 47 (CCPA 1966). For example, making the groove wider at the opening would make installation easier and provide more space to receive the material upon compression.

Regarding claims 12-15, Woodman does not disclose the materials required by the claims. Using these materials is considered a design choice. The selection of a known material based on its suitability for its intended use is not considered inventive. See In re Leshin 125 USPQ 416 (CCPA 1960).

Regarding claim 16, Woodman discloses a continuous retaining projection 81d at an inner periphery that extends radially inward. However, Woodman does not disclose plural projections (i.e. not continuous). Making the projection a plurality of projections instead of one integral projection is considered a design choice. See In re Harza, 124 USPQ 378 (CCPA 1960).

Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the sealing ring of Woodman with a wider groove, recess, claimed materials, and plural projections as matters of choice in design.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 19 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 6-17-04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive and are moot in view of the new grounds for rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
